VICTORIA'S POPULATION.

A Census Shows it to be 8,500.

The following is the report of the census-taker, made in accordance with the instructions of the municipal council:

VICTORIA, B. C, April 14, 1886.

To the Mayor and Council of the City of Victoria—Gentlemen: Agreeably with your instructions to prepare a census of Victoria, I have with assistance visited every house and building within the city limits, and after a careful enumeration have ascertained that the population out side of Chinatown consists of:

Adult males	3,776
Adult females	2,292
Males under 14	1,200
Females under 14	1,184
Total	8,452

The disparity between the number of adult males and females may be in part explained by the fact of 207 Chinese and 100 natives, and the greater number of transient occupiers of rooms in hotels, say 400 more, being added to the male side.

The classification by nationalities so far as ascertained may be set down as follows: English 3,470, Scotch 736, Irish 584, Welch 40, Canadian 1,014, Americans 799, German 282, French 80, Italian 34, Dutch 29, Austrians 26, Greek 24 Hungarians, Belgians, Spaniards, Portuguese, Poles and Swiss 67. Danes, Swedes, Norwegians, etc., 87. Chinese outside of Chinatown 207 Japanese 7. Native Indians 101. Undefined nationality 870.

With regard to the religious division of the classes named they are approximately divided as follows: Church of England 2156, Reformed church 295, Presbyterian 966, Methodists 758, Baptists 167, Lutheran and other protestant not otherwise defined 1605, Roman Catholics 950 Sundries, including Greek church and the Jewish faith 144, spiritualists 5, undefined, among which are 214 Chinese and Japanese, 1409. I have the honor, etc.,

EDWARD MALLAINDAINE,
R T. WILLIAMS.

A Horrible Fight.

SAN ANGELO, Tex., April 19.—A brutal affray occurred between two women in the negro precincts of the town. Bad blood had existed for weeks between Mary Love, a young quadroon, and a mulatto woman named Mattie Moore. They met last evening and a desperate battle was waged. Both women carried clasp knives. Mary Love was stabbed ten times, each cut being from two three inches deep. Mattie Moor received four gashes, but none are serious. The climax of the fight was reached, when the mulatto grabbed the tongue of her prostrate adversary and cut it out near the root. The woman will die.

Per Northern Pacific Railway.

OTTAWA, April 29.—L. O. L. 227, of this city, has passed resolutions of sympathy with the Loyalists of Ireland, and forwarded a money grant to assist them in their struggle to maintain the integrity of the Empire.

The Government steamer Lansdowne arrived at St. Andrew's, in the Bay of Fundy, yesterday evening, and ordered off four American fishing schooners which had put in for bait. The Department of Marine and Fisheries has secured the schooners Critic, Terror, Houlett, Conrad and General Middleton for the fisheries protection service. These vessels will be put in commission with the least possible deday.

The vitriol throwing affair in the West end the other night has been relieved of all its mystery. From the result of the detective's investigation it would seem that in place of the assault being made on both Matthew McMahon and Mary Milloy, it was made on the former alone and made by the latter, who burned herself through her own clumsiness in handling it. She is to be arrested this evening. The evidence points conclusively to this result.

The alleged establishment of an organization to be known as "The Protestant Electoral association," each member of which must bind himself to vote for no candidate for civic, provincial or Dominion honors who is not a Protestant, has caused considerable comment in this city. The proceedings of the body are quiet, but it is said to have a considerable membership already. The city is about evenly divided between Catholics and Protestants.

The elections in New Brunswick were not run on Dominion issues. Judged by the position the successful candidates take in Dominion politics, the new House of Assembly is composed of twenty-three Liberal-Conservatives and eighteen Grits.

HALIFAX, N. S. Apail 29.—Charles F. Vose was arrested on a third charge of forgery to day.

The estimates were submitted to the local Legislature to-day. The probable revenue is $600,000. The whole amount will be spent.

Dispatches from Cape Breton report a great deal of ice off that coast.

MONTREAL, April 29.—Warden Laviolette had a change for the worse this afternoon, and continues to grow weaker.

WOODSTOCK, April 29.—The court held another lengthy session last night trying the case of Dr. Swan against the town of Woodstock and a Mr. Hill. It was an action to recover damages to a house and lot caused by water flowing from the street on to plaintiff's premises. The evidence showed there was a drain across defendant's (Hill's) place. By reason of its condition Hill blocked this drain up, claiming that it was a private drain, and that he had a right to do so. The result of stopping it up was that the water flowed over the adjoining property. The corporation claim that the drain was a public one, and that Hill had no right to block it up. The case was adjourned and judgment reserved.

TORONTO, April 29.—The retort of Judge McDougall, giving the result of his investigation into the Garrison Creek sewer matter, has caused considerable talk amongst the citizens. Mayor Howland has expressed his intention of suspending City Engineer Sproat and City Commissioner Coatsworth unless the Board of Works do so at their next meeting. A libel suit is pending at the instance of Contractor Goodson against the Globe, but after the opinion expressed by the judge as to the character of the work in the sewer it is unlikely the suit will be proceeded with.

Winnipeg is erecting a monument in memory of her volunteers who fell last spring, which will cost $5,000.

An Ottawa dispatch says there is no truth in the statement that a St. Louis land and cattle company has obtained a lease of 2,000,000 acres of land in the Canadian Northwest. No such company has even made an application for a lease.

Just Arrived.

The carload of buggies, phaetons, etc., consigned to A. Cowan, just arrived, and are now on view at his store, Colonist building, Government street. Inspection invited. *2w

A Pleasing Duty.

"I feel it my duty to say," writes John Borton, of Desert, P. Q., "that Burdock Blood Bitters cured my wife of liver complaint, from which she had been a chronic sufferer. Her distressing, painful symptoms soon gave way, and I can highly recommend the medicine to all suffering as she did." tu-th-sat.dw

The "constantly tired out" feeling so often experienced is the result of impoverished blood, and consequent enfeebled vitality. Ayer's Sarsaparilla feeds and enriches the blood, increases the appetite, and promotes digestion of the food, and the assimilation of its strengthening qualities. The system being thus invigorated, the feeling rapidly changes to a grateful sense of strength and energy. dw

TO BREAK up a cold or cough or its ill-results there is no better remedy than Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. tu-th-sat-dw

They Couldn't Reach It.

(Chicago News.)

In a little down-town saloon the other day more than a dozen men tried to sneak an elegant ivory handled umbrella which leaned against a white-maple panel at the end of the bar. Although several of the men were evidently experts, not one could manage to secure it. Whenever the bartender caught a gentleman in the act, and he managed to catch them all, he put up glasses for himself and the dishonest patron, for which the patron alway pays.

"Stormy weather outside," remarked a well dressed man, catching sight of the umbrella and moving over toward it.

"Another seltzer and lemon, and take something yourself," remarked the customer, cordially. Then a hand slipped down behind the pleasant gentleman's coat-tails and began groping around. Pretty soon it touched the panel and moved cautiously across its polished surface. It didn't find anything and the gentleman who owned it stopped whistling suddenly and grew red in the face. He coughed violently and walked to the other end of the bar to expectorate. On his way back he glanced sharply at the panel and saw leaning against it the ivory-handled umbrella. The performance was repeated. The stranger was beginning to show signs of having an epileptic fit when the bartender leaned over and said dryly:

"Can't you get it?"

"Ahem, well—ah, you know—my umbrella—you see," gasped toe gentleman.

"Yes, it's a daisy, ain't it. Jim, the night bartender, put her there. He's got talent." The umbrella was painted on the panel.

A Modern Miracle.

In a recent letter from R. W. Dowson, of Deloraine, Ont., he states that he has recovered from the worst form of dyspepsia, after suffering for fifteen years; and when a council of doctors pronounced him incurable he tried Burdock Blood Bitters, six bottles of which restored his health. tu-th-sat-dw.

MISCELLANEOUS.

AN APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF THE

ROYAL HOSPITAL, VICTORIA

THE DIRECTORS OF THE ROYAL HOSPITAL and Convalescent Home desire to press the urgent claims of the above for increased funds to enable them to carry on the work of relieving the sufferings of distressed humanity.

Having no reserve funds to fall back on, the present list of subscriptions numbering only 134 is totally inadequate to keep up the working of the institution, and the Directors therefore confidently appeal to the hearts and sympathies of the public for a substantial addition to the funds, the increasing prosperity and population of the province encouraging them to think their appeal will be liberally met.

Every bed in the Hospital is now occupied and numerous applications for admission have to be frequently declined by the Directors, and the question of erecting a larger and more complete establishment will have to be dealt with in the near future.

The expenditure is kept at the lowest possible sum consistent with the actual necessities of the inmates and the efficiency of the working staff.

Applications, almost daily, are received from districts outside the city, and it is hoped residents in these localities will also aid the Directors in their work.

Donations of old linen, clothing, books, periodicals and newspapers will be thankfully accepted at the Hospital and subscriptions received by the Honorary Treasurer.

Sisters of Charity

Charity, attached to St. Mary's Infant Asylum, Dorchester, Mass., certify to the inestimable value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the treatment of sore eyes and skin diseases, among the many unfortunate children under their care. Mrs. S. D. Bodwell, Wilmington, Mass., writes concerning the treatment of her daughter, who was troubled with sore eyes, as follows: "I gave Ayer's Sarsaparilla to

My Little Girl,

and must say that she never took anything that helped her so much. I think her eyes never looked so well, as now, since they were affected, and her general health is improving every day. She has taken but half a bottle." A. J. Simpson, 147 East Merrimack st., Lowell, Mass., writes: "My weak eyes were made strong by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla." C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H., writes: "For a number of years I have been troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief, until I commenced using

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

For a Number of Years,

I was cured of both diseases by using six bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla." M. G. Traine, Duxbury, Mass., writes: "I have found Ayer's Sarsaparilla an efficacious remedy for bilious troubles and Dyspepsia." Henry Cobb, 41 Russell st., Charlestown, Mass., writes: "I was completely cured of Dyspepsia, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla." Wm. Lee, Joppa, Md., writes: "I have tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it has done me so much good that I shall always regard it as the best of blood purifiers." Eminent physicians prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers."

THE CHICAGO RIOTS.

The doctrines of the socialists have at last borne fruit. In the city of Chicago these imported ruffians have set law at defiance and have taken the lives of innocent men, who were the guardians of law and the protectors of the public peace. The inflammatory harangues of Justus Schwab and Herr Most first excited their dupes, and Parsons and Spies have only completed the work which they began. There can now be no doubt that there is a large body of socialists in the land. Schwab, standing behind his beer saloon, and, like O'Donovan Rossa, pouring forth the most arrant nonsense, was a contemptible figure, but Schwab, inciting gullible men to deeds of violence and insurrection, is a person to be feared and summarily dealt with. It is from the insidious teachings of such a man as this that the great body of the unwashed learn the lesson of revolt against constituted authority. Given a leader, and the fickle multitude will follow him to the death when its passions are once aroused. The honest workingmen of America have grievances doubtless, but they ask that they be righted in a constitutional way. There is no excuse for the shedding of innocent blood. It is pleasant to note that the knights of labor have condemned the riots and wish it to be distinctly understood that they have no part in it. This announcement was not needed to tell us that the sons of America are on the side of justice and right and against any movement calculated to imperil the lives of their fellow citizens. It is to the foreign element we have to look to discover the perpetrators of these crimes against the land of which they have been privileged to become citizens. It is to be regretted that America, while it has attracted a host of good men, has also become an asylum for the scum of Europe. Coming to this free land, without any sense of their responsibility to the laws either of God or man, expecting to make a living without earning it, as the people of the country have to do by the sweat of their brow; at war with all those who happen to possess wealth, made, as nearly all wealth is made in America, by honest labor, they form an ingredient of the body politic which is as unwelcome as it is repulsive. We may look in a large measure to the socialistic teachings of the continent for the germ which originated in these men the ideas that are now being developed. Having no fear of the divine justice, they take the law into their own hands, spread over a civilized city the pallor of death, not to speak of the business losses sustained as a result of their wrong doing. To stamp out this lawless band should be the aim of the authorities. "He who lives by the sword shall die by the sword"; and they who use that most nefarious of all methods of warfare bombs charged with dynamite, should be "hoist with their own petard." There is no reason to doubt that the people will triumph, as they always do, against the machinations of their enemies, or that the strong arm of the law will punish these outcasts of society as severely as they deserve. To those martyrs in the cause of right and truth, the dead and wounded policeman, who so bravely performed the duties of their office, the country owes a debt of gratitude which it will undoubtedly repay in so far as it can. Such bright examples are of incalculable good, and such noble heroism stands out in brilliant relief in the recent carnival of crime.

THE POLICE.

The Times endeavors to convey the impression that Councillor Higgins is anxious to shirk responsibility for the recent police changes. As the changes were made with the sanction of the mayor and his colleagues an attempt on his part to claim all the credit would be resented by the gentlemen who desire to share the responsibility with him. The changes were made in the interest of the city and the mayor and police committee can scarcely be expected to recede from a position which they assumed after the most careful deliberation.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CRIME.

Cause of the Cruel Death of a Young Girl.

OMAHA, Neb., April 30.—The evidence produced before the coroner's jury at Nebraska City goes to show that Maggie Shellenberger, aged 11 years, who was found last evening with her throat cut, in the cellar at her home, three miles from town, was foully murdered. There is no longer any theory of suicide or accident entertained. The deed is said to have been perpetrated during a few minutes' absence from the house of her father, mother and young brother. The story told last night was that the girl was told to clean off the cellar stairs, and that she either fell down stairs on a butcher knife which she had, or that she committed suicide, or was murdered. She was found by her father, who went down the cellar for something. The evidence shows, however, that she had received four separate cuts, one severing the windpipe and carotid artery. Other cuts were under the chin and neck. She was found lying in a dry goods box, the body half in the box and the legs and arms resting on the ground. A butcher-knife lay near by. There were evidences of a struggle. It was found that the cellar steps had not been cleaned by her. No stranger had been seen in the vicinity. Mrs. Shellenberger is the step-mother of the girl. The jury is still in session.

Shellenberger and his wife were arrested this evening for the murder of the child and placed in jail. There are strong threats of lynching. All the circumstantial evidence points to the guilt of the accused, as the child was heir to valuable property, which reverts to the father.

An Unnatural Crime.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—George and Emma Fleetwood are in jail in Charleston, Cole's county, Ill., charged with murdering their father and mother two years ago, in their home ten miles from Charleston, and afterwards setting fire to the house to conceal their crime. At the time of the tragedy circumstances pointed to James W. Inkleback, a hired man, as the author of the crime, but he was acquitted. Two more of the children, John and Albert, will be arrested. The nature of the evidence against the accused has not been divulged. The old people left a small estate, which was divided among their eight children.

ROME, May 7.—During the past twenty-four hours 12 new cases of cholera and four deaths have been reported at Venice. Five cases and two deaths at Vicenza and sixteen cases and six deaths at Barioa.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, May 7.—This was the first day of the Kempton park spring meeting. The race for the Kempton park grand prize, for 3 year olds, was won by Lord Calthorpe's colt Scherzo; A. Taylor's colt Sun second; A. Pritchard's colt Muncaster, out of Mrs. Jones, third. There were nine starters. Scherzo won easily by a length and a half; three-quarters of a length between the second and third.

The British steamer Martello, from New York for Hull, collided with and sunk the cutter Ida off Lizard point lighthouse. One person was drowned.

AMERICAN NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The forty-three days' contest over the will of Thomas Fallon, who left an estate valued at about $300,000, was concluded yesterday by the jury bringing in a verdict breaking the will. The will bequeathed to Fallon's youngest son the greater part of his property, to his daughter $40,000, and two other sons were not mentioned in the will. D. S. Payne, Henry Kenitzer and Adolph Pfister were appointed executors of the estate without bonds. Fallon's four children contested the will on the ground of deceased's imbecility of mind and undue influence. The jury exonerated the executors, who were charged with undue influence.

Al. Stewart, a prominent figure in local politics, who was arrested on Friday last during the Bancroft fire, for pocket picking, committed suicide this morning in his cell in the city prison by taking poison, the exact nature of which has not been ascertained. The act is believed to have been caused by despondency over the fact that all his friends had refused to come to his aid in his present trouble.

The bequest of $3000 by ex-Senator Sharon at his death to the Golden Gate Kindergarten association was used to establish the Flora Sharon Kindergarten which was opened to-day.

EASTERN STATES.

PITTSBURG, May 7.—Great excitement was occastoned in the lower wards of Alleghany and some parts of this city today by the distribution of anarchistic circulars in large numbers. The circulars were printed in German and English and urged the workingmen to revenge the killing of McCormick, to burn, pillage, and destroy and to eat, drink and be merry. Circulars were distributed so early that no suspicion of their character was entertained until thousands of copies had been given out. In this city there are seven groups of anarchists with a total membership of not more than 150.

DUBUQUE, May 7.—Harry McFadden, and Miss Avi B. Taylor, both of Savannah, Illinois, while taking a pleasure ride last evening from Savannah to Bellevue got the buggy entangled in the brush close to the river bank and were tipped over, horse, buggy and both occupants being thrown into the river. All were drowned. The bodies of the couple were found this evening.

CANTON, Miss., May 7.—Last night a negro entered the house of W. N. Bledsoe and attempted a criminal assault on his 14-year old daughter. He was taken from jail to-day by a number of citizens and hanged.

BOSTON, May 7.—Capt. Cyrus B. Averill, of Rockland, Maine, has made a demand on the Queen of Madagascar for $60,000 damages for the robbery and abuse of himself and daughter, and the looting and burning of his vessel, the bark Surprise, on the Madagascar coast last November. The documents have been forwarded by the state department to Consul Tamatav, with directions to request that instant reparation be made. It is stated that a U. S. war vessel was recently dispatched to Madagascar in connection with the outrage.

NEW YORK, May 7.—An Irish home rule meeting at the academy of music to-night was a great success. Among those on the platform were ex-Postmaster-Gen. James, Governor Hill, Mayor Grace, and Governor Leon Abbott, of New Jersey. Later Senator John Sherman, Congressmen Grosvenor and Butterworth of Ohio, and Gen. Stewart L. Woodford also arrived and were escorted to seats on the platform. Mayor Grace was made temporary chairman, and spoke briefly of the objects of the meeting. Resolutions were passed eulogizing Gladstone and Parnell, congratulating Ireland on its coming emancipation, and congratulating England on the progress in public sentiment which had permitted the introduction of the home rule measure in parliament. The resolutions will be presented to Messrs. Gladstone and Parnell by Mr. J. J. O'Donoghue, who will sail with them for Liverpool to-morrow.

CANADIAN NEWS.

NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, May 7.—Two or three American fishing schooners have appeared in the basin at Digby within the past day or two for the purpose of buying bait. In response to a telegram the government steamer Lansdowne went this morning and giving chase to the David J. Adams, of Gloucester, overhauled her, and took her back to Digby, where she will be taken to St. John to-night under seizure for violating the fishing laws.

The Adams was put in charge of a prize crew to-night and 13 members of the schooner's crew were transferred to the Lansdowne. This is the first American fishing schooner that has been seized by the Dominion authorities.

QUEBEC.

MONTREAL, May 7.—For some time the customs authorities have understood that the firm of Patterson, Kisock & Co. were passing goods at an undervaluation. Several times they attempted to gain access to the books of the firm and obtain the necessary information, but failed. This morning they made another attempt and a struggle ensued as the firm had taken legal advice, and were informed that their books could not be forcibly taken. During the altercation revolvers were drawn and the police were called in, who arrested the customs officers. They returned to the store subsequently, but were again baffled by the firm who had locked the books in the safe. The officers then seized the stock which is valued at $175,000. The firm have taken legal proceedings against the customs authorities. The firm state they are innocent of any wrong doing. It is said the charge against the firm is of a very serious character.

YESTERDAY'S DISPATCHES.

GREECE.

ATHENS, May 7.—The government has sent a gunboat to Constantinople to take away from the Turkish capital the Greek minister. Greek troops are being hurried to the front with all possible speed.

All foreign ministers, except the Russian minister, who has received no instructions, have embarked on the vessels of their respective nations to depart from Greece. The powers have given orders to their fleets to blockade the Greek ports.

All soldiers at the garrison here received with cheers the orders to march to the frontier.

The Peleponessian army has been ordered to Thessaly. The movements of the Turkish army are threatening to make Thessaly the scene of the first warlike operations.

The government has announced its intention of defending Greek territory against any and all advances made by foreign soldiers.

The foreign squadron has returned to Suda Bay; the Greek fleet left Salamis and is believed to have gone to Epirus. It is not believed here that the Russians will take any share with the other powers in their ulterior work of coercion against Greece.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA.

THE REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE YEAR 1885 SHOWS THAT the applications for Life Assurance received during the year were 1,864 for $2,608,071.48, being 566 applications for $707,229.30 beyond the corresponding figures for 1884. Of this 142 applications for $279,921.64 were declined or not completed, and $2,328,149.84 was written up under 1,722 Policies.

In the Accident Department 1,028 Policies for $1,715,500.00 were issued. The total completed business for the year was thus $4,043,649.84 under 2,750 Policies.

At the end of the year the Assurances in force were as follows:—

	NUMBER.	AMOUNT.
Life Policies, including bonuses	5,144	$7,930,878.77
Accident Policies	1,777	3,136,500.00
Total	6,921	11,067,378.77
Annuity Bonds	6 Yearly Payment	1,213.00

By reference to the accompanying Statements, it will be seen that the income for the year was $319,987.05, being an increase of $41,607.40 over the previous year, while the gain over the disbursements netted the handsome sum of $123,677.66.

The Life Claims which fell in during the year were on 35 lives under 38 Policies, covering the large amount of $95,675.13. Of this amount, however, $15,000 had been re-assured with other companies, thus leaving our net liability at $80,675.13. As usual the Company paid all its claims promptly on the receipt of legal discharges, without waiting for the expiration of sixty or ninety days as is the case with many Companies. It is a pleasure to be able again to repeat that there is not one contested claim on the Company's books.

The Assets now amount to $973,504.33; or, including the Capital, to $1,411,004.33; being an increase of $136,607.09 over 1884. The Surplus to Policy-holders has also increased largely, and now amounts to $138,038,87; or, including the unpaid Capital, to $575,538.87, thus affording the surest evidence of economic management and of the safe investment of the Company's funds. This, moreover, is after providing the full reserve according to the Dominion Government standard with 4½ per cent. interest.

MONTREAL, 19th February, 1886.

To the President and Directors of the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA:

GENTLEMEN:

I have much pleasure in saying that the audit for the year 1885 is completed. The Balance Sheet I have verified and certified.

The Cashier's duties have been satisfactorily performed and the Accountant's work has also been promptly and carefully done.

The duties of every department that came under my supervision have been diligently attended to.

I am, gentlemen, yours respectfully,
PHILIP S. ROSS, Chartered Accountant,
Auditor.

MONTREAL, 24th March, 1886.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Board of Directors of the Sun Life Assurance Company, to examine the securities held by the Company, beg to report that they carefully examined the Bonds, Mortgages and other securities as recorded in the Books of the Company, and certified to by the Auditor, Mr. P. S. Ross. They found them all correct and in perfect order.

Funeral of Mr. E. S. Vigor.

The funeral of the late Mr. Vigor took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence on Cadboro bay road. Rev. Mr. Jenns read a portion of the funeral service of the Church of England over the remains at the house. The body was then placed in the hearse and a procession, headed by Vancouver-Quadra Lodge of Masons, was formed and proceeded to Ross Bay cemetery, where Rev. Mr. Jenns read the remainder of the service. Bro. R. B. McMicking then read the masonic funeral service and the body was consigned to the grave. The attendance was very large, and much sympathy was expressed for the wife and children, suddenly bereft of their earthly protector, who was a man of sterling qualities and universally liked. The pallbearers were: Joseph Spratt, Captain Lewis, Captain Irving, Thomas Earle, W. T. Bullen, Andrew Gray, W. Collister, and D. W. Higgins. Flags on the shipping drooped sadly at half mast during the progress of the funeral.

The Proctor Case.

Yesterday afternoon, on an application to the chief justice, a writ of habeas corpus was granted and the prisoner Proctor released from gaol. It will be remembered that this was one of those mysterious affairs which happily are of rare occurrence. The sudden and suspicious disappearance of Burgh, for whose supposed murder the released man was committed to prison, seems to be as unaccountable as it was strange.

The chief justice also granted a habeas corpus in the cases of Robert Marwick and James Smith and they are at liberty again.

The deputy attorney-general for the crown; Mr. W. J. Taylor, for the prisoner.

Thompson Opera Company.

Mr. W. H. Kinross, acting manager of the Casino opera house company, of Portland, arrived here yesterday as avant courier of the Thompson Opera company. They are now in their eighteenth week at the Portland Casino, and our public will gladly welcome them on their return to Victoria. Their season will begin on Monday, May 17th, and their repertoire for the week will be as follows: Monday—"Iolanthe;" Tuesday—"The Merry War;" Wednesday—"Patience;" Thursday—"Bohemian Girl;" Friday (by request)—"Mikado;" Saturday—"Billee Taylor." With such a repertoire the opera house ought to be crowded at each performance.

Personal.

Mr. P. J. Gillis, of Nicola, left yesterday on a three months' visit to Edinburgh, Scotland.

Mr. A. D. McInnes, of Alexandria, will remain some days in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan, Mr. R. H. Alexander and Mr. G. Robertson arrived from Vancouver yesterday.

Mr. W. E. Baines came down by the steamer Princess Louise from the Inlet yesterdry.

Rev. John Reid has concluded to remove to Portland where he will engage in the Seamen's Bethel work. He will remain at Port Townsend a few months longer during which time an effort will be made to get the Presbyterian pulpit there acceptably filled.

F. M. Pixley, editor of the Argonaut, accompanied by his family, has gone to Alaska.

Count Herbert Bismarck, who was attacked with inflammation of the lungs several days ago, is now improving. The fever is decreasing, the crisis having passed.

Mr. W. H. Kinross, the Portland baritone, came over yesterday to make arrangements for the appearance here of a comic opera company.

Mr. R. Dunsmuir and a party of friends left by the steamer Alexander for Nanaimo yesterday.

Mr. A. Brealey is on the steamer Mexico now on her way from San Francisco.

Rev. Mr. Crosby, of Port Simpson, returned home this morning in the "Glad Tidings."

Mr. and Mrs. B. Springer arrived from Moodyville yesterday. Mrs. Springer will sail for San Francisco to-day.

At the Driard: A. H. Mallory, Portland; M. A. Rockheld, San Francisco; W. H. Kinross, Portland; R. Coburgh, D. Desart, R. Comte, San Pedro; J. F. Walzen, San Francisco; J. F. Gordon, Toronto; A. F. Cotton, Ottawa; B. J. Springer, wife and daughter, Moodyville.

Dr. Hanington and wife are on board the mail steamer coming up.

Judge Dawne.

What has become of this wretched man? He seems to have disappeared as effectually as though the earth had opened and swallowed him up leaving "not a wrack behind" to mark that such a man ever existed. The last seen of the ex judge by any person hereabouts was in the gathering gloom of a November evening when, having settled his score at a chop house, he grasped his gripsack and headed his way towards the rocks that line the harbor near Sayward's mills. There are many who believe that the fugitive died from exposure, or that he committed suicide. He was a man who, once seen, would not be soon forgotten, and if he were still in the land of the living would certainly have been recognized by some one of his many acquaintances.

THE OLD CATHEDRAL.

The History of a Venerable Catholic Relic.

The removal of the old Catholic Cathedral (St. Andrew's) to St. Ann's convent, of which it will form an extension, and become suggests some facts in reference to that venerable old edifice, which has done its own good work in the cause of the Master. The first beginnings of Christianity were rude and unattractive, for only in the catacombs of Rome could the believers in Jesus of Nazareth celebrate the doctrines of their faith. There in the little chapels hewn out of the solid rock gathered together, and praised that Divine Master, who was despised and hated by the idolaters who revelled in their sin and wickedness in the great city above. There, too, was sown the seed of martyrs, who went into the arena where certain death awaited them, fortified by the hope of meeting in glory Him in whose cause they died. Afterwards the cave-dwellers came out into the open light of day, and erected stately structures where they might worship God in peace. The beginnings of in British Columbia were necessarily hard and difficult. The missionaries had not till 1858 any church building worthy of the name. In that year Father Michaud designed and built on Humboldt street, which is now being removed. The good priest was only a Brother then, and he did the great bulk of the work with his own hands. To him it must indeed have been a labor of love, and how well he did his work, considering the means then at his disposal, is attested by the solidity and ornamentation of the building of to-day. It is related that he would allow no one to see the inside of the building until it was completed, guarding it with the jealous love of a sculptor who, when his labors are over, proudly draws aside the veiling, and sees his great creation exposed to the gaze of admiring crowds. The ceiling, which was of California redwood, painted white, was said to have been so evenly joined that the congregation thought it was plastered. The symbols and carvings are curiously wrought, and show as well good taste as good workmanship. The harp over the gallery is particularly attractive, its very antiquity lending it an added beauty.

THE NUNS' CHAPEL,

THE FAITHFUL

CATHOLIC LIFE

The intention is, we learn, to keep the inside of the building as nearly as possible in its present state, to guard it sacredly as a relic, to be used still for the pious uses to which it has been devoted in the past. Father Michaud, the builder, became, upon the completion of the edifice, a priest of the order of the Holy Viator. On the 5th of December, 1858, the building was consecrated by assisted by the Rev. Fathers Rondeault, Vary, Charles Pandozi, O M. I., and Brothers Michaud and Thibeaudeau, clergy of the Holy Viator, and thereafter became St. Andrew's Cathedral. The scene was an imposing one, and to the Catholic people of the city, who may be said to have had at last a "local habitation and a name," must have been a gratifying one. Church work went smoothly on for some years without anything out of the ordinary occurring specially worthy of being chronicled—marriages were celebrated, children were baptized, and the last sad rites were solemnized. The work of the missionaries must have been hard and laborious, but they toiled on in cloud and sunshine, doing the work which they were appointed to do. In 1864

BISHOP D'HERBOMEZ

was consecrated by Bishop Demers assisted by a large body of the clergy including Father Mondart, who came to the city in 1863. Bishop D'Herbomez had previously been an Oblate Father laboring in the Oblate mission at Esquimalt, but the diocese growing too extensive comprising, as it did, the entire province was, at the request of Bishop Demers, divided, and the newly consecrated bishop went over to New Westminster which became the seat of his see. He still lives there, rich in the odor of sanctity, respected and esteemed by all classes of society.

Bishop Demers, of saintly memory, died on the 28th July, 1871, and was buried on the 31st. Bishop D'Herbomez conducted the funeral rites, and, if we mistake not, delivered the panegyric. The body of

of whose goodness and purity, and benevolence, the older people of Victoria have such pleasant memories, lies beneath the sanctuary of the old cathedral. The archbishop's intention is to build over the spot dedicated to Our Lady of Lourdes, which the people may approach at all times. Thus will a monument be raised to the memory of the first bishop, whose herculean labors and nobility of mind were known to all men.

With the recent history of the old cathedral nearly every one is familiar.

BISHOP SEGHERS

was consecrated on the 19th of June, 1873, and continued his ministrations with what zeal the public knows, until July 1st, 1879, when he was removed to Portland, Oregon.

BISHOP BRONDEL

succeeded him, and was consecrated in the old cathedral on December 14th, 1879. He faithfully performed the duties of the bishopric until May 1st, 1883, when he was appointed to the see of Montana territory, and still presides with his well-known ability over that extensive diocese.

ARCHBISHOP SEGHERS

was reappointed to this diocese in March 1884, at his own request. No words of encomium which we might write could add to the esteem in which he is held by the whole community. His devoted task among the Indians of the country, his success in establishing church buildings in all sections of his diocese, including the pro-cathedral and the stately archiepiscopal residence in this city, which would do credit to any diocese, his remarkable talents and ardent piety, and above all his large-minded liberality and large-hearted benevolence, justly endear him not only to the members of his own church, but to all Christians who have been brought into the slightest contact with him.

The old cathedral now enters upon

A NEW EXISTENCE.

It becomes part of St. Ann's convent, and will fill a want long felt by the Sisters. It is a venerable relic, well worthy of being preserved, and of the care which is now being bestowed upon it. We learn, on the best authority, that the erection of a stately cathedral will soon be begun on the church lands on Blanchard and View streets. The foundations will in all probability be laid next year, and the work will be continued as the condition of the diocese permits. That it will be a noble pile, worthy of this growing diocese, and of this beautiful city, we have little doubt.

NOVA SCOTIA

Wants Some More Hush Money.

The Premier Introduces a Secession Resolution.

(Exclusive to The Colonist.)

HALIFAX, May 7.—Premier Fielding, of Nova Scotia, introduced a resolution in the legislature yesterday that Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island sever their connection with the Dominion of Canada and form a maritime union. If New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island will not consent then Nova Scotia will appeal alone to sever her connection with the Dominion and to allow her to become an independent colony.

Evading the Customs.

"You can't get them back. Go away!" These words, heard proceeding from the interior of the custom's office yesterday, were addressed to a Chinaman, whose features had assumed apparently for the occasion, a most forlorn appearance. But John, not being willing to take this for an answer, hung around, affording an opportunity for enquiry as to the meaning of the words. It seems that the Chinaman, who said his name was Wa Long, is a vender of the succulent asparagus, and the acceptable, but not particularly nutritious cabbage. He went last Thursday evening on board the steamship Sardonyx, lying alongside Turner & Beeton's wharf, to see the cook—a countryman and friend. After a presumably pleasant time, Wa Long was observed coming ashore somewhat increased in bulk. A customs officer noticing the sudden dropsical appearance of the departing guest determined to tap him, and accordingly hailed to him to stop. The latter struggled for a moment between a burning desire to run and the advisability of looking unconcerned and walking away; but hearing the pursuer close behind him, he could stand it no longer, and dropping ten boxes of cigars, he fled, and was soon a Long Wa off. Yesterday he turned up again, this time at the custom house, and applied for the cigars,—offering to pay the duty on them; but with the result stated. He mentioned the names of several well known persons whom he knew; regretted that his lawyer was on the way to England, and felt sure that if he could but have a personal interview with Mr. Hamley, it could be made all right. Being told that if he didn't get out he would be locked up, he chose the former alternative and "got."

The Retort Courteous.

The story in this week's papers of Sir John A. Macdonald's shutting up a deputation which had called to develop their scheme for taking to England three of the most famous northwest Indians, recalls another anecdote dating back to the days when Mr. Bunster was rather conspicuous as a British Columbia representative. Mr. B. went to Sir John to ask his assistance in carrying through the commons a bill relating to his province. Patiently did the premier listen to the arguments advanced in favor of the measure, no less than to the clincher, "you ought to support the measure as one of us, Sir John, for you are rowing in the same boat with us"—referring to the fact that the premier then sat as a representative for New Westminster. "True," replied Sir John, "but not with the same sc(k)ulls." That settled Bunster, as the reply on Saturday settled Dr. Orton.—Canadian-American.

The Effect of Carrying a Pistol.

An interesting story is told of Judge Branham, of Georgia. The judge frequently reproved one of his clerks for carrying a derringer pistol in each of his vest pockets, but could not induce him to abandon the unlawful habit. One day a client came into the office, with whom the clerk got into an altercation, winding up by calling the client a "liar." The latter picked up a pair of tongs with the intention of braining the clerk, who quietly pulled out a derringer and requested the client to lay down the tongs, which he did and took his departure. Turning to the judge the clerk said: "You have always insisted that I should not carry a pistol, as I would have no need of it. Now, suppose that I hadn't had that weapon, that fellow would have killed me with those tongs." "Not at all probable," replied Judge Branham. "Why?" interrogated the surprised clerk. "Because," replied the judge, "if you had been without a pistol you would not have called the fellow a liar.—Portland (Or.) News.

An excerpt from the annual report of this company appears in to-day's issue. The situation of the company is most promising, the assets large, the business flourishing, the profits large and the security undoubted. A large distribution of profits to the assured will be made shortly. Mr. Imrie, Galpin's building, Government street, is the British Columbia agent for the Sun, and will furnish all necessary information.

ALLIGATOR'S EGG.—Frank Campbell had on exhibition yesterday an egg deposited in some warmer clime by the gentle alligator. It was as large and rather longer than a goose's egg with a stouter looking shell; and would doubtless prove a toothsome morsel at the breakfast table even though it may not be newly laid. Some enterprising chicken fancier should try to get it hatched out and give one of his hens a surprise.

THE ten-dollar fine imposed on David Craigie by the police magistrate has been paid and is now in the city coffers. The money stolen from the schools belonged to the school children. It would be a graceful act on the part of the city council to recoup the children for their loss.

LORD SELBORNE'S VIEWS.

Violent Attack on the Land Bill

LONDON, April 23.—Lord Selborne (liberal) in a letter to the Times, attacks certain features of Gladstone's home rule bill. He pronounces the measure hopelessly faulty from the fact that not one of the restrictions provided excepts from the powers of the proposed Irish legislature any matter relating to the lives, liberties, and properties of the Queen's Irish subjects. Magistrates, judges and police in Ireland, says Lord Selborne, will be servants of the Dublin government. Referring to the fact that Gladstone's measure excludes from the powers of the Irish legislature all matters relating to the army and navy, Lord Selborne says, there is still no reason why a cannot be raised without passing a bill. Lord Selborne also strongly attacked the land purchase bill. He asks, upon the ground that £150,000,000 will be required to buy out the Irish landlords, how sharers in the first £50,000,000 provided are to be selected and what position those landlords who may happen to be excluded from the first sales, will thereafter occupy—first with respect to the collection of their rents, and second with regard to the prospects of being bought out at all." "Does Gladstone," asks the writer, "expect that these landlords will have their rents paid in the meantime?

VOLUNTEER IRISH ARMY

WHAT SECURITY IS THERE

that any future government after Gladstone's will pass an act to add £100,000,000 to the national debt in order to do justice to the remaining landlords of Ireland, when in the meantime the government of Ireland has passed into the hands of the nationalists, and a great experiment, which has already cost $50,000,000, has perhaps proven a failure?" If the question is one of public honesty, justice and good faith, provision ought to be made now to discharge the whole obligation, otherwise it is a cruel mockery towards the landlords.

INDIA.

Fears of a General Revolt.

Private and trustworthy cable dispatches say that the native malcontents in India are becoming expectant of a break-up of British rule. European officials, civil and military, have sent communications home stating that never since the great mutiny was crushed, were the natives, and especially the Brahmin classes, so insolent and threatening as now. The native press is more than ever hostile and aggressive. The demands of the educated natives include self-government through the Brahmin class, the reduction of the English garrison and the formation of a strong body of native artillery to replace the English, the control of India finances, of judicial appointments and of the native army seems to be the programme of the civilized Hindoo. Beyond the press agitation there is known to be a nucleus of a conspiracy league, which, if permitted free growth, will become formidable.

THE REPORTED WRECK.—It is now thought that the rumor of the schooner Champion being on the rocks at Cape Flattery is unfounded, no such occurrence having been heard of at Neah Bay and that the story probably arose from a vessel being seen anchored in close proximity to the spot.

RELEASED.—The young man Proctor who has been in prison for nearly eighteen months, under a charge of complicity in the suspected murder of a man named Burgh has been released for want of sufficient evidence.

"Another Cowichan Mystery."

An Explanation that Does Not Solve It.

SOMENOS, May 6, 1886.

TO THE EDITOR:—In your issue of Friday, April 30th, I observe an account of "Another Cowichan Mystery."

A probable elucidation of the matter is suggested by a circumstance which occurred last summer. Distant cries were heard as of a female in distress, and the attention of neighbors was drawn to the fact with the view of investigating the affair. It turned out, however, that a trapper was catching beaver, and he was able to account for the startling shrieks which broke the stillness of a summer night, and which would speedily have given rise to sensational rumour.

It is noteworthy in the present case that no one is missed from the settlement and it has been observed that doubt exists as to the exact time of the disappearance of Mr. Holmes' boat.

Had the boat been weighted with stones and scuttled with a body in it, but a short time would probably elapse before the body would finally rise to the surface.

Yours faithfully,
E. C. J. CHARLEY.

Answer to "Pilot."

TO THE EDITOR:—In your valuable issue I read this morning a letter signed "Pilot," which from the errors contained therein calls for an answer. On the 13th April my position was 8 deg. north, 118 deg. west, so Ragna could hardly have seen me 8 degrees distant. I passed Race light at 3 a.m. May 1st. Ragna had not arrived in Royal Roads at sunset same day. As the name "smartest sailer on the Pacific" seems to cause much heartburning let me assure "Pilot" and others that it was not applied by me to the Titania. I simply did my best to bring the fine ship to which I was appointed safely and as quickly as possible to her destination.

In conclusion, I would ask "Pilot" to apply his powerful mind for the benefit of strangers like myself who after bringing their ships from a long and anxious passage and arriving off the dangerous Race rocks look for local experience to assist them on the last and not least dangerous part of their voyage. At good and broad daylight on the 1st May the Race rocks at 6 a.m., having the jack flying, I looked anxiously, but in vain, for the wished-for pilot. I passed about three miles off and stood for Albert Head to the best of my ability, but the wind failing I had to make sail to hold my own, and as a matter of fact did not get a pilot till near Albert Head at 7 a.m., who then took me in safely to Esquimalt harbor. Trusting this subject may now die out, I am, sir, your obedient servant,

JAMES L. DUNN.

The Chinese Assault Case.

VICTORIA, May 7, 1886.

TO THE EDITOR:—Noticing a report in your paper of Thursday last "that the case of Robert Marwick and Eli Leclaire, charged with assault to do grievous bodily harm, was laid over till next assizes, their alleged victims, four Chinamen, being as yet unable to appear against them, owing to the injuries sustained." I beg to state I stood my trial in November last and was found "not guilty" by a jury. Subsequently, owing to some observations of the chief justice, Mr. Willis Bond, one of the jurymen, stated he was unable to "stultify his conscience," and the judge recorded no verdict. The other eleven jurymen refused to change their verdict. The Chinamen were then in perfect health and could show no signs of any injury, and I certainly never injured them, and they all gave evidence. According to the law as laid down by the chief justice in Martin's and Moore's cases at the late assizes, the crown is only entitled to one adjournment, except on cause shown and with notice to the other side, therefore I am advised that the alleged postponement cannot have taken place and the case has fallen through.

ELI LECLAIRE.

KILLED HIS SON.

The Result of a Row Between Two Old Men in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Alex. Ribbola, an Italian 62 years of age, living at 3243 Butterfield street, became engaged in a quarrel this morning with John Hipsman, a German hostler 60 years of age. The two old men soon came together, Hipsman with a pitchfork and Ribbola with a revolver. The latter fired an ineffectual shot, when Hipsman dropped the pitchfork and grappled with him to obtain the revelver. While the two old men were quarreling a servant called out to Ribbola sons that Hipsman was killing their father. The boys hastily rushed out and Felix, aged 23, sprang between the combatants. As he did so a shot was fired and Felix sank to the ground. With a wild cry, "My God, I've shot my boy!" he raised his son's head and called upon him to speak. Receiving no answer and maddened by grief he left the prostrate form and rushed into the house. He entered his room, threw himself on the bed, and placed the muzzle of his revolver in his mouth and with the last remaining shot killed himself instantly. The wounded boy is shot through the lungs and cannot survive. The Ribbola family was one of the oldest, best and most favorably known Italian families in Chicago.

The Late School Robbery.

TO THE EDITOR:—During the progress of the case against the lads Craigie and Roscamp, charged with robbing from the desks at the public school, my son was mentioned as being implicated in the theft. The lad is entirely innocent and was at home at the time stated, as could have been proved had my son or myself been called upon to give evidence. Not having the opportunity of doing this, I adopt the only other means I know of to publicly exonerate him by asking that this letter be allowed to appear in your paper.

American News.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 5.—The friends of ex-Vice-President David Davis are alarmed over the condition of his health. His general health has not been good for some time past, and he has become much reduced in flesh. The present alarm is caused by the appearance on his left shoulder joint of a huge carbuncle, the continued development of which, it is feared, will endanger his life. The carbuncle is as large as a man's fist, and is extremely painful. In 1864 Mr. Davis came near losing his life from a similar attack.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—No tidings have been learned by the parents of the missing four-and-a-half year old boy, Arthur Fraser, who disappeared from his home, 1077 Folsom street, on the forenoon of the 16th of last month. A reward of $500 has been offered for information that will lead to his recovery.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 5.—Fourteen workmen were buried by the collapsing of the Brackett block at 2:30 this afternoon at the corner of First avenue south and second street. Five persons have been recovered, one dead and four others dangerously injured, perhaps fatally. Their names have not been learned. The workmen had the rear wall out to build an annex and it is thought the loss of this support caused the building to collapse, the walls falling in ward on the workmen.

Public Lands in British Columbia.

In the commons, Mr. White (Cardwell), introduced a bill to make further provision respecting the administration of the public lands of Canada in British Columbia. He said the object of the bill was to bring the lands within the railway belt in British Columbia which belonged to the Dominion, under the jurisdiction of the Dominion lands board. Up to this time the lands had been in charge of Mr. Trutch, but as his connection with the department would cease at the end of this year, and as now there was easy railway communication with British Columbia, the purpose was to put the administration of the lands there under the Dominion board. He had issued an order to the agent at Victoria, to at once remove to the mainland in order that the settlers might obtain their pre-emptions.

MR. MITCHELL said he must congratulate the government on having taken a step which must commend itself to every person who knew anything about lands in British Columbia under the administration of Mr. Trutch.

The bill was read a first time.

MISTAKE OF ATHLETIC STUDENTS.

Professor F. W. Newman, the eminent English scientist, contributes an account of his way of life, to the Herald of Health, at the request of its editor. As Prof. Newman has passed his eightieth birthday, and is still hale and hearty, his example has some value.

"Perhaps I ought not to conceal that I am sadly out of harmony with the prevalent doctrine of the day concerning hardihood.

"When I was a young man I had my own theories about bracing and hardening my body; I slept on a hard straw mattress; I generally scorned a great coat—at least a warm one. In Asiatic travel I had plenty of necessary hardships. I slept with open windows in most seasons; but travel brought me around to an opposite conviction.

"At University College, London, I found that the young men with open necks had no such immunity from cold and cough as I enjoyed through my wraps. One of my greatest distresses there was speaking (loud) against their coughs and nose-blowing.

"Except in warm summer, I seldom rise early, because I become cold in sitting still, especially after the night has chilled the room.

"Once only in seventeen years was I absent from my lecture room in London through inability to use my voice;—an inability caused by struggling against the noises of coughs, etc. But my dear wife said that in more than forty years she had never known me to have a cough; yet at this moment I am the weaker for having foolishly 'roughed it' years ago when, in the month of September, sudden cold came on after great heat and I had no winter flannels with me.

"Let me add that I hold to Cicero's advice, given to a student: 'Take exercise, so much as is needful for health, but not so much as will conduce to the highest bodily strength.'

"I have no doubt that hard, muscular work stupefies the brain. I have as much manly strength as my duties require. Not long back a person standing at my side while I spoke loud to a large audience for an hour and a quarter, told me that my last sentence was uttered as vigorously as my first, and that he had watched in vain to hear me failing.

"Of course, in lifting weights, etc., I should not be called any thing but a weak man. What does it matter! Each has his own specialty. With no padding of fat, I am glad of good, thick clothing; and, in bed, of soft undercloth or feather bed. I shun linen sheets and everything that is glossy, preferring rough cotton.

In short, I try to nourish and cherish my skin, and find it succeeds."

An Arab Horse Trade.

An Arab who wishes to sell a horse will never consent to be the first to name a price. Some one comes up and says, "Sell, thou wilt gain."

The vender replies, "Buy, thou wilt gain."

"Speak thou first."

"No, speak thou."

"Was he purchased, or reared?"

"Reared in my tent, like one of my own children."

"What hast thou been offered for him?"

"I have been offered 100 douros."

"Sell him to me at that price—thou wilt gain. Tell me then, what thou askest."

"See what is written with Allah."

"Come, let us drive away the previous bidder, and do thou take ten douros over and above his offer."

"I accept. Take thy horse, and Allah, grant thou mayst be successful upon his back as many times as he has hairs upon it."

Should the seller be desirous to avoid all risk of future annoyance on the subject of warranty, he adds, in the persence of witnesses:

"The separation between us is from this moment, Thou dost not know me and I have never seen thee."—[Gilbert Sage's Reminiscences.

The Last Slave in This Country.

The Thomasville (Ga.) Register is authority for the statement that the last slave in this country was owned by a negro, Collins Alston, who years before the war became his own master, and by thrift saved enough to purchase Milly Reynolds.

During the war the woman physician plied her calling for the benefit of her colored owner, and even after the end had come and the rest of her race were realizing the mixed joys and sorrows of freedom she continued the unwilling slave of her sable master.

She remained in bondage for nearly a year after the emancipation, and then she was only able to break the chains by accepting a refuge with a white lady, now living in Thomasville.

Comfort for the Smiths.

Virginia was founded by a Smith. Two of her Governors have been Smiths, and one of them was Governor twice.

One of the signers of the Declaration of Independence was a Smith.

There have been nine Smiths in the Senate of the United States.

A Smith was the first Attorney-General of the United States, then Secretary of the Navy, and afterwards Secretary of State.

Eight of the Confederate generals were Smiths.

Smith is one of the illustrious names in England, and Scotland furnished Adam Smith, the great political economist. So there is no discount on the Smiths.—[Lynchburgh Virginian.

Specimen Boston Boy.

"There's no use arresting boys," said an officer yesterday. "They are rarely sentenced, most of the cases being placed on file. The boys know they won't be sentenced, and have the laugh on the officer. I took in a youngster the other day, and as we were walking along he cried out: 'Take your hand off me!'

"I replied, 'You keep quiet, you young rascal.'

"'You don't dare swear at me,' he exclaimed, 'or use any talk that ain't polite.'

"'Why not?' said I.

"'If you do, I'll go to the Board of Police and tell 'em, and then they'll take your buttons off.'

"I couldn't say a word; the boy knew too much."—[Boston Globe.

A Young Telegraph Operator.

The youngest telegraph operator on the railroads in this section, and probably in the State, is little Okey Mitchell, operator at Eagle Rock, on the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad. He is only 9 years of age.—[Lynchburg Virginian.

The Difference.

A modern wit defines the difference between men and women thus:

"A man gives forty cents for a twenty-five cent thing he wants, and a woman gives twenty-five cents for a forty cent thing she does not want."

Portrait of Zola.

M. M. Zola, the French novelist, is described as carrying a face combative, pert, dogged, egotistical, with thick, sensual lips, a turned-up nose, a conspicuous chin, and a good, broad, intellectual brow, with short and bristly hair atop of it. When Zola speaks, though it be only to say, "What fine weather we are having," he manages to convey the idea that he is uttering wisdom and being listened to by one who is presumably an ass. His life, his home, his face, his habits are those of an orderly, methodical rentier. In his youth he suffered privation and poverty.

Syrup of Figs.

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is Nature's own true Laxative. This pleasant liquid fruit remedy may be had of Langley & Co. Sample bottles free and large bottles at 75 cents and $1 25. It is the most pleasant, prompt and effective remedy known, to cleanse the system; to act on the Liver, Kidneys, and Bowels gently yet thoroughly; to dispel headaches, Colds and Fevers, to cure Constipation, Indigestion and kindred ills. dw13

A Severe Trial.

Those who endure the torturing pangs of neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, and similar painful complaints are severely tried, but there is a speedy relief in Hagyard's Yellow Oil as thousands who have used it joyfully testify. It banishes pain and lameness quickly.

The Perfection

Of the age in the medical line is the liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal. It is agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach, harmless in its nature, painless yet prompt and thorough in its action. For sale by Langley & Co., Victoria 11dw

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP," and take no other kind. ap9-eod-dw

One Dollar Against Five Hundred.

Isaac Brown, of Bothwell, Ont., was afflicted with chronic humor in the blood. He says one dollar bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters was worth more than $500 00 paid for other medicines. It is a reliable blood purifier. tu-th-sat dw

CAMPBELL'S

TONIC ELIXIR

This agreeable yet potent preparation is especially adapted for the relief and cure of that class of disorders attendant upon a low or reduced state of the system, and usually accompanied by Pallor, Weakness and Palpitation of the Heart. Prompt results will follow its use in cases of Sudden Exhaustion arising from Loss of Blood, Acute or Chronic Diseases, and in the weakness that invariably accompanies the recovery from Wasting Fevers. No remedy will give more speedy relief in Dyspepsia or Indigestion, its action on the stomach being that of a gentle and harmless tonic, exciting the organs of digestion to action, and thus affording immediate and permanent relief. The carminative properties of the different aromatics which the Elixir contains render it useful in Flatulent Dyspepsia. It is a valuable remedy for Atonic Dyspepsia, which is apt to occur in persons of a gouty character.

For Impoverished Blood, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, and in all cases where an effective and certain stimulant is required, the Elixir will be found invaluable.

In Fevers of a Malarial Type, and the various evil results following exposure to the cold or wet weather, it will prove a valuable restorative, as the combination of Cinchona Calisaya and Serpentaria are universally recognized as specifics for the above-named disorders.

CAUTION.—Don't experiment with new and untried medicines, but always keep on hand this safe and sure remedy,—Allen's Lung Balsam.

MOTHERS, have you delicate, weakly children, who are always TAKING COLD, and subject to CROUP? Remember, there never was a case of CROUP which did not originate in a COLD.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM IS YOUR REMEDY.

Physicians who have failed to cure their patients should try this medicine before they give the case up, as we know many valuable lives have been saved by being persuaded to give it a trial.

DO NOT DESPAIR because all other remedies have failed, but try this remedy, and you will not be deceived. It will cure when all others fail.

Allen's Lung Balsam is now put up in Three Sizes,

Price 25c., 50c., and $1 per Bottle.

The 25c. bottles are put up for the accommodation of all who desire simply a Cough or Croup remedy. Those desiring a remedy for Consumption or any Lung Disease should secure the Large $1 Bottles.
